Continuous earthquake shocks h damaged every building in Socor. When a woman turns grey she gets blue.

Nobody is justified in considering justice fishy just because we hear so much about the scales of justice.

The Hartje divorce case proves that it is not a wise thing to let all sorts of people have your paper and envelopes to use in their correspondence.

Thus the Washington Post says: "It is refreshing to note that the steel trust is asking favors of the government instead of demanding them." It is not refreshing note that it also gets the favors it asks.

The Russian assassin who killed Gen. Kozlov apologized by saying that he didn't intend to get Kozlov, but mistook him for Gen. Trepoff. Trepoff is not expetced to accept the apology.

Some newspapers are knocking Private Secretary Loeb because he takes it on himself to say things that the people would like to have President Roosevelt say himself. No private secretary to the President should be discounted. He is liable to collect the corruption fund that elects the President.

Says the Greensboro Industrial News(Rep.): "if ever a political party was on the defensive the Democratic party in North Carolina is today in that condition." Sure. Every true North Carolinian should fall in with the defense and defend North Carolina from the possibility of another Fred Douglas Legislature.

The Durham Herald remarks: "If Mr. Butler was in earnest in the things he was hollering for a few years ago it appears to us that he finally landed in the wrong party." He didn't have anybody fooled but the honest Populists who couldn't believe for a time that Marion Butler was leading them in a round-about way into the Republican camp.

The Washington Post is authority for this: "It had come. James B. Reynolds, one of the President's commissioners for the inspection of the Chicago packing-houses, is now writing testimonials for a canned soup which he discovered in one of the plants." Just as we expected. We knew sooner or later that the packers would get some of those inspectors "in the soup."

EWS FROM RALEIGH

ngs Before the Corporation mission and the Norris Trial Are On.

THE WAKE CAMPAIGN ENDS

Ready For Primaries There To-morrow After a Spirited Campaign—State Text Book Commission and Work Being Done.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 19.—Adderson Maupin, of Atlanta, was on the stand as a witness for the Southern Bell Company in the telephone hearing to-day before the Corporation Commission and testified that as an expert accountant he made an examination of the books of the independent telephone company at Asheville just before it gave place to the Southern Bell corporation and found that on a basis of $24 year for business and $16 for residence service, the company lost $11,000 a year for five years. A Mr. McLeod made an examination at the same time for the city of Asheville, and his figures only differed from those by the witness by $400. The examination is being made by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes by whom the complaint on which the examination is being made was filed demanding a reduction of rates to $1.50 for residence and $2.00 for business 'phone service.

Taking testimony for the prosecution in the case of M. T. Norris, the prominent Raleigh merchant charged with burning a farm house owned by his wife so she could collect the insurance, was concluded this afternoon. Judge Webb declined a motion by defence to dismiss the case on the ground that the State had not made out a case strong enough to go to the jury The defense excepted and decided to go to the jury without introducing evidence. Judge Womack opened the argument for the defense and the case will continue all of tomorrow.

Raleigh, N. C., July 19.—The last of the meeting of Democratic candidates for county and legislative and county candidates in Wake, subject to the approaching Democratic primaries, was held to-day at Township House, ten miles from Raleigh, thus closing, probably, the most bitter canvass that Democratic opponents for office have ever held in the county and one of the most bitter ever known in the State, the fight being headed by Percy J. Olive for the Senate and advocated by the morning paper here, and another ticket headed by John C. Drewry for the Senate and supported by the afternoon paper.

The members of the text-book subcommission now have their work of examining the text-books offered for adoption for use in the public schools of the State well in hand and say that they are making good progress. Their report to the State Board of Education, or text-book commission, as they are designated for the purposes of the act government adoption of text-books, will not be made before August 1. It will require prompt work thereafter for the board to make the adopting and for the publishers of the books adopted to get them out to the depositories throughout the State in time for the opening of the Fall terms of the schools.

Hanover Seaside Club.

Hanover Seaside Club enjoyed a delightful outing at their club house on Carolina Beach yesterday and last night. On acount of a dance during the evening, there was a late boat, arriving in the city at midnight. Several hundred members of the club and their families visited the beach during the day. St. Matthew's English Lutheran Sunday School also had its annual excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday and the two events took a very large number of people to that favorite resort.

CRUISE OF RESERVES

Naval Brigade Leaves Tuesday Night or Wednesday Morning of Next Week.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT

Reports Indicate Forty Men Will Go. Officers in Command—Appointments Announced by Capt. T. C. Daniels—Other Notes.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, was held last night in the armory, on Princess street, for the purpose of discussing the forthcoming cruise of the command with the North Carolina Naval Brigade, leaving this city next Tuesday night or Wednesday morning on the steamer Compton. Details of the cruise were gone into very thoroughly, and from reports received it was ascertained that the division will embark about forty men, which is more than the seventy-five per cent. required under the regulations. Capt. T. C. Daniels will be in command of the Brigade, and Lieut. H. M. Chase in command of the Wilmington Division. It appears now to be the plan to proceed from Wilmington to Morehead City, taking the Newbern, Kinston, Elizabeth City and other divisions aboard there and cruising for ten days along the North Carolina coast, touching at Morehead City, where the National Guard encampment will be in progress at the time. A general order from the Adjutant General's office is expected in the next day or two, covering all details of the trip.

Capt. T. M. Morse will be on board the cruiser as Chief Navigating Officer of the Brigade, and Mr. W. A. Furlong as Chief Engineer. Other officers will be assigned as the date for the cruise approaches.

From Brigade headquarters Capt. T. C. Daniels yesterday sent down the following Brigade appointments:

W. Hull Moore, Chief Quartermaster.

J. M. Murphy, Chief Gunner's Mate.

G. T. Williamson, Chief Electrician.

These appointments are not only for the forthcoming cruise, but are permanent Brigade appointments.

AN ALLIGATOR HUNT

Giant Creature Wounded and Captured in Local Harbor Yesterday—Length Nine Feet; Weight Over Two Hundred Pounds.

The wounding and subsequent capture of a nine-foot alligator in the harbor, near foot of Market street, was witnessed with some degree of interest by a large number of people who were attracted to the water front by repeated firing yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. For some time a monster alligator has been known to have its resort near the wharf of the Acme Tea Chest Company, across the river, and yesterday morning, the water being muddy, Mr. O. A. Durant, keeper of the Brunswick ferry, determined upon the alligator's capture. He stationed himself on a lighter near the wharf with a good rifle and presently the creature put in its appearance. Mr. Durant fired and others soon joined in the fusillade, the tough hide of the animal being seemingly impervious to the bullets.

Capt. Jas. S. Williams and Dave Brown, one of his colored boat hands, were passing at the time and seeing the effort to capture the 'gator, joined in the fray and succeeded in placing a line around the creature's body and towing him to the Market street dock, where hundreds assembled to view the captive. Several men were required to control the alligator until he was finally knocked in the head by Mr. John T. Yates, who secured an axe from the fire boat Atlantic, tied up at the wharf there. The animal was apparently a veteran, as his body bore seevral marks of violence and a part of his tail had been evidently shot off. He measured a little over nine feet in length and weighed, it is estimated, between two and three hundred pounds. After the animal was killed his hide was taken off and will be sent North to be tanned. It is the first alligator of its size ever captured so far up the river and so near the city water front.

Colored Baptists in Session.

Nearly a hundred colored Baptists from this city went up to Currie, N. C., yesterday morning to attend a big Sunday School convention, which will be in session there through Sunday. Rev. W. M. Moore, pastor of Shiloh Baptist church, in this city, will preside over the convention.

FOR BEACH TRAFFIC

Corporation Commission's Attention Called to Need of Depot Facilities Here.

COMPLAINT HAS BEEN FILED

Matter Brought Up Through Merchants' Association of Wilmington and Copy Served on Consolidated Company Here.

Raleigh N. C., July 19.—The Corporation Commission has had its attention called to the inadequate depot facilities for travel on the suburban line of the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company at Wilmington. The attention of the Commission is called to this matter by President L. B. Rogers, of the Merchants' Association, which organization has taken the subject up as of public importance not only to the city but the large number of excursionists and beach visitors during the Summer.

A letter from President Rogers, of the Association, asks if the electric railway is not under the supervision of the Commssion and if the company should not provide accommodations for the travel. It is pointed out that Wilmington is one of the largest objective points for excursionists in the South and that no accommodations, whatever, are furnished in the way of depot or waiting rooms, especially in the case of bad weather when passengers on late cars have absolutely no shelter upon arrival at Wilmington. The letter asks, if possible, that the Commission require the company to furnish ample accommodations, conveniently located, for such traffic.

Chairman Franklin McNeill, of the Commission, was absent from his office at the time of the receipt of the letter from Mr. Rogers but has written that he will serve the complaint on the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company and have them answer same; but in the meantime he asks that Mr. Rogers submit any suggestions as to what would be a convenient point at which to provide such accommodations as he suggests.

THE LIGHT INFANTRY

Life of Company Depends Upon Seventy-Five Per Cent. Strength Carried Into Camp—Sufficient Number Not Yet Have Absence Leave.

Although the canvass of employers has been very thorough and the committee has even gone to the extent of seeing some of them twice, the necessary seventy-five per cent. of the strength of the Wilmington Light Infantry to go into camp has not yet been secured, a number of members being unable to get off from their employers to perform this important service to the State and to the city. The committee is apparently at its wits end in the matter, and may have to resort to the military regulations of taking the men regardless of their employers' wishes, as much as they would regret to go to this extreme. The life of the company is absolutely dependent upon the command's going into camp with the seventy-five per cent. of its enlitsed strength, but the few employers, who have large property interests at stake, do not seem to realize this and the desirability of having in the community a well-organized body of soldiery in case of an emergency which is likely to arise at any time. There are yet four or five of the enlisted men who are unable to get away from their employment, and the result of the further efforts of the committee is awaited with interest not only by those directly interested in military affairs, but by the public at large. It is hoped that enough of the employers of members of the company will relent in time to save the organization, which is really in danger unless the required strength is taken for the Morehead duty.

Insurance Men Meet.

Mr. S. M. Burbank, of New York, superintendent of agencies for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, on the Atlantic seaboard, is in the city and on Wednesday afternoon held an important conference with a number of agents and superintendents in this district at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach. Business matters of no general interest to the public were discussed with Mr. Burbank, and the agents and superintendents enjoyed the meeting as a very pleasant social affair. The Fayetteville, Lumberton, Rockingham and Laurinburg agencies of the company were represented at the meeting.

A. C. L. IN ATLANTA

Traffic Arrangements With Southern Making Possible Entrance Into Gate City

CONNECT WITH "ELLEN N."

Double Track Between Atlanta and Macon Will Contribute to This End—Shorter Line Into Savannah Than Georgia Central.

(Atlanta Constitution.)

Washington, July 18.—(Special.)—It is said here among those who are in close touch with the headquarters of the Southern Railway, that it has been decided to double track the Southern line between Atlanta and Macon, and further that this decision has been reached as the result of an agreement with the Atlantic Coast Line system, by which traffic arrangements have been made giving the Coast Line entrance into Atlanta from Macon over the Southern.

It will be recalled that some months ago it was announced that the Atlantic Coast Line was then negotiating for entrance into Atlanta from Macon, after it had definitely secured its title to the Macon, Dublin and Savannah, from Macon to Vidalia.

Since then it seems that the Coast Line has been moving definitely towards establishing the connection between Vidalia and Savannah, thus completing the through route by the extension of the old Macon, Dublin and Savannah to Savannah.

Arrangements have about been completed and actual work will begin very soon. This will give the Atlantic Coast Line a direct through route from Atlanta to Savannah, and if the traffic arrangement with the Southern is effected, as announced, the Coast Line will meet the Louisville and Nashville system in Atlanta over the double-tracked Southern between Macon and Atlanta.

The Louisville and Nashville system is owned by the Coast Line, and it has been definitely known for some months that the Coast Line had determined to establish connection between the two properties at Atlanta.

It is said that had arrangements not been effected between the Southern and the Coast Line from Macon to Atlanta, the latter system would have built its own line into Atlanta.

With this direct line from Atlanta to Savannah the Coast Line will have a mileage into Savannah somewhat shorter than that of the Central Railroad.

MRS. MELISSA B. ROBBINS DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Wednesday Afternoon—The Funeral.

Mrs. Melissa B. Robbins, wife of Mr. G. M. Robbins and a daughter of the late Capt. S. R. Chinnis, passed away at the family home at Phoenix, N. C., Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of thirty-four days with typhoid fever. The death came as a sad blow to very many friends and the family, who have the sympathy of all in their deep bereavement. She was in the forty-sixth year of her age and had been a devoted member of the Goshen Baptist church since she was 16 years of age. She was much loved and highly respected in the community in which she lived and wherever she was known.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by her husband and thee children, Messrs. Preston B., and Roger M. Robbins and one daughter, Miss Nettie Robbins. The funeral was conducted and the interment was in Summerville cemetery, near Phoenix, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., of this city conducting the services. The pall-bearers were Messrs. S. J. Rowell, A. S. Kirby, A. M. Williams, R. T. Williams, C. W. Kirby and Dr. F. M. Williams.

Interest Coupons Are Paid.

Pursuant to a mandate of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, sustaining the decision of the lower court, in the bond case of Tolman and others against the Commissioners of Onslow county, the interest on the bonds in question was paid yesterday through the office of the Clerk of the Court in this city, together with all costs in the action. This puts an end to the suit and all the bonds dependant upon the issue in the suit are held to be valid.

Appointed Travelling Auditor.

Mr. Howard McClintock, in the office of Mr. E. L. Prince, auditor of freight receipts, has been promoted to the position of travelling auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line, with headquarters at Orlando, Fla. He will assume his new duties August 1st., travelling in the State of Florida. He is succeeded in the office of Mr. Prince by Mr. H. L. Cook.

THE CONVENTION CHAIRMAN.

Col. N. A. McLean for Mr. Patterson, Not for Mr. Brown.

Referring to the article in yesterday's Star apropos the Congressional situation, it was stated that Col. N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, "understood to be a Bown man," was slated for the permanent chairmanship of the convention at Fayetteville next Thursday. Yesterday it was learned from high authority that Col. McLean is not a Brown man but will support Mr. Patterson.

Since the above was written the following telegram was received from Col. McLean last night, and is published with pleasure and with regret that he was placed in the wrong column in the first instance:

Editor Star, Wilmington, N. C.

In your issue of to-day you say it is understood that I am for Mr. Brown for Congress. I am very fond of Mr. Brown, but I always support my county man and will, therefore, vote for Mr. Patterson.

N. A. McLEAN.

COMMERCIAL WASHINGTON.

Evidently Washington is not going to be satisfied with being the capital of the greatest country on the earth but is determined to be considered an American city—one that wants to get into the push, grow larger and attain commercial prominence. There is now a great movement on foot in Washington for a greater Washington The Star is glad to see it. It shows the American spirit and we sympathize with it. It is an ambitious plan which the Washingtonians have in hand and it is to be hoped it will be carried out.

According to a recent police census the city of Washington contains a population of 326,435, of which 95,018 are negroes. The city is growing in population, and the spirit of progress is there as well as elsewhere in the other cites of this country. It is the City Beautiful, but the people who are fortunate enough to live there want the city limts extended and are ambitious that Washington shall become a manufacturing city. Recently we noted that Washington is making claims to being the educational centre of the country, and now it proposes to be a commercial city. Judging from the spirit of the people and the powerful influence of the press, we are to see the Nation's capital made notable besides being the seat of government. This from the Washington Post shows that Washington is going to work on its own hook to do what is now on foot in that city:

"The business community of Washington is now asking itself a question which should have been asked and answered long ago. If Washington is able to keep pace with the reat of the country without exerting itself in a commercial way, why should it not grow relatively faster with an expenditure of energy?

"The business of entertaining Congress and visitors may have satisfied Washington in the past, but it will not hereafter. Business accumulates influence with its growth, and this influence is now being concentrated and exerted toward still greater expansion. The preponderating influence of those who clung to the notion that trade and commerce would detract from the beauty of Washington has given way to the more vital influence of finance and business, working together for a greater Washington—not a less beautiful, but a more beautiful and incomparably richer city. The people of Washington perceive that the esthetic side of life is not ignored in the greatest business centers of the country. Hand in hand with the increase of civic growth goes the transformation of the ugly into the beautiful. New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cleveland, and other cities can point to municipal beautification on a big scale, without a cent from outside quarters. Washington's civic spirit will be manifested still more promptly and emphatically, because of the expenditures by the government in improving its Capital. If the country thinks that Washington will sit back and wait for Congress to do it all, it is mistaken. For every dollar expended by Congress, Washington will furnish another dollar, as it has done for years.

"The mere fact that aWshington has grown in proportion with the country without especial effort on her part is now an incentive to the awakened business spirit to seize upon and develop the great possibilities here for trade and commerce. Already the chief gateway between the North and South, it is proposed to make Washington also the chief supply and distributing center of a thickly populated region. If Washington had been dependent upon business alone, as other cities are, its peculiar location would have been exploited long ago. Now that it has attained a population which includes powerful commercial and financial institutions, its growth commercially may be expected to be one of the surprising features of the next decade."

Go ahead, Washington. We like to see our Southern cities grow.

THE REPUBLICAN POLITICIAN DIED.

The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday, referring to the death of Postmaster A. M. Long, at Rockingham, Sunday morning, says editorially:

"The negro at Selma, who was shot by the telephone girl, and the Republican politician who died from the effects of a blow by the young woman who resented his insult, met their just deserts. Young women need to work for their living in stores, in offices, in telephone exchanges, in dining-room in factories, and elsewhere. They, therefore, are forced into contact with men of all sorts. It is the glory of this State that its men are as respectful to the dining-room waiters as to women in their own homes, and they are as safe in their business avocations as in social life. Whenever there is an exception and some man, drunk or sober, offers an insult, it is a matter for congratulation when the young woman can send a bullet into the heart or give a heavy blow to the man who would destroy her. It is a terrible penalty to pay, but it is a crime for which no penalty could be too severe."

As a matter of course any woman, in order to protect herself, is justifiable in even taking the life of her asailant. The Selma case was clearly justifiable and was moreover highly commendable. In the case at Greensboro, where a waitress at a hotel table was insulted by a delegate who attended the Republican State convention, the circumstances were different. The young lady resented the insult and broke a plate over the man's head, with no intent to kill him. She did right in resenting the insult and it was the man's misfortune that he died. However, if it is not quite the thing for girls to be killing men under and all circumstances. It makes no difference about the man but it does make a difference with the girl. Under extreme provocation a girl might kill and slay but the provocation should be undoubted. No woman wants blood on her hands unless she is completely justified. The man at Greensboro deserved a whack but in that case the homicide was unintentional. However, if women get to defending themselves in a way that men will be in peril of their lives, it is apt to make brutes take a second thought.

GOVERNMENT INSPECTORS.

Now comes along the philosopher of the Saratoga (N. Y.) Sun, who says:

"Secretary Wilson, who didn't catch the cotton report thieves in his own department, and whose inspectors did not catch the Chicago packers in their iniquities, is the most voluble believer in the efficacy of government inspectors under the new meat law.

Well, government inspectors are simply ordinary bipeds, some times with their eyes blinded by bribes and some times conceitedly making mischief for which there is no decent excuse. A people that relies upon government inspection instead of the moral law will be the sport of the gods as well as of the crooks."

Most of the time the government appointee is some political hack, who is rewarded for his work for the party. He may not know very much about the inspection busines and he may learn or he may not. Nevertheless some people think if it's government inspection it is the thing. It may be or it may not be.

—Mr. Blackburn's picture has appeared in the Industrial News and this is taken as a sign that it is all over.—Durham Herald.

—When it comes to breaking up the "Solid South," Mr. Taft will find it necessary to adopt other tactics than jumping on it.—Washington Post.

—The Congress can place any construction it pleases upon the fact that as soon as it adjourns the Executive and Cabinet officers feel safe in leaving the government in the hands of chief clerks—Washington Post.

—The keenest sufferers from the Thaw-White tragedy are the widow of the victim and the mother of the murderer. When Thaw's mother wept in his arms in prison yesterday, he must have felt in full force the folly of his career.—Savannah News.

—But there is a large gain in the presence of such a man as Mr. Tillman. He is apparently as honest as a man can be made and absolutely incorruptible. There is a tendency rapidly growing in the country to recognize in the pugnacious Southerner a force of real value to the Commonwealth. He is generally recognized to be a Cato, pugnacious and obstinate, but thoroughly honest and possessing good intentions. The country at large is not at all grieved but, rather, quite glad that we are to have another term of Tillman.—Watertown (N. Y.) Standard.

—In consequence of the policy declared by President Roosevelt that the United States will act as policemen for the countries to the South of us by preserving order there and compelling the payment of their debts to Europe, there is a distinct fear of us by some of the South American governments, and this appears to have unfavorable affected our trade with them. It is to allay these fears of our aggressive policy that Mr. Root will pay these visits, and incidentally see what can be done to open a greater market for our products.—Schenectady Gazette.

—The International Women's Congress, sitting in Paris, recently witnessed a ludicrous scene. The ladies were in solemn conclave when suddenly there appeared a pair of trousers on the scene. For a moment the ladies were too perturbed to identify the sceetre, but after a monment of benumbing silence the President rallied, and in an icy tone identified it as "a man." Then the apparition relieved the tension by explaining that it was the mortal presence of M. Legendre, of Sens, an ardent femininist. "I stood," he said, "as femininist candidate at the last elections, and I have to-day taken eleven trains to appear among you. I am happy to enjoy this opportunity of supporting your cause." Alas for enthusiasm when it is of the male persuasion and relates to matters feminine! The President rose, and after explaining to M. Legendre, in tones of cold, calm severity, that the taking of eleven trains at a stretch did not confer the right of entry to that assemblage, had him expelled.—London Globe.

TWINKLINGS.

—Knicker—Is Newrich happy? Bocker—No; by the time fortune's cup came to him his wife wouldn't let him drink out of the saucer.—Brooklyn Life.

—Mother—Elly, they tell me that the young professor runs after you everywhere. I think it is very improper. Daughter—Well, shall I run after him.—Kleiner Witzblatt.

—"You've been so prosperous this year you ought to be very happy." "How can I be happy when I ain't got a thing in the world to growl about?"—Atlanta Constitution.

—Borroughs—Say, old man, there was a time when you promised to share your last dollar with me. Richly—That's all right; I haven't got down to it yet.—Catholic Standard.

—Harold—Newlywed is greatly worried over an 30-day note. Rupert—Can't he meet it? Harold—It ain't that—it's a note his wife gave him to mail thirty days ago and he's just thought of it.—Judge.

—Nervous Player (deprecatingly playing card—I really don't know what to play. I'm afraid I've made a fool of myself. Partner (reassuringly)—That's all right. I don't see what else you could have done!—Punch.

—Mr. City Boarder was being entertained by his rural sweet heart. "Do you play and sing 'When the Cows are in the Corn,' Miss Milkyweigh?" "Lord bless you, no!" she ejaculated; "I get the dogs and chase 'em out."—Harper's Weekly.

First Fish—A fisherman caught me a while ago and landed me in the bottom of a boat. It was like being in jail. Second Fish—How did you manage to escape? First Fish—The boat began to leak and some one bailed me out.—Detroit Free Press.

—"Poor woman! She works hard all day, and then she's up nearly all night with the babies." "What's the matter with her husband? Why doesn't he help her?" "Oh, he puts in all his time agitating for an eight-hour day for the workingman."—Philadelphia Press.

He Killed the Bill.

Senator Elkins was talking for statehood for New Mexico and Arizona the other day until they reminded him how he kept New Mexico out of the Union thirty years ago. Elkins was formerly a delegate in congress from New Mexico. Once he had the bill making New Mexico a state in such shape that it was ready to be called from the table and passed. Senator Burrows of Michigan, then in the house, made a sensational speech against the bill. Elkins was not in the chamber. As he came in somebody told him that Burrows had made a great statehood speech.

Elkins rushed down the aisle, shook hands with Burrows and warmly congratulated him. He thought Burrows had spoken for instead of against him. The Democrats who were going to vote for the bill saw Elkins effusively tell Burrows that he had made a great speech and concluded that if Elkins, who was father of the bill, felt that way toward a man who opposed the bill they could not afford to vote for it, and they didn't. The result was that the bill was beaten, and New Mexico isn't in yet. — New York World.

The Wrong Animal.

Ignorance of natural history—and some other things—played a part in a fight of which a well known actor tells a story.

A Welshman, he says, had taken boxing lessons until he thought he could whip anything of his weight. He thereupon challenged an Irishman to fight him to a finish, and the challenge was promptly accepted. The Welshman selected a fellow countryman named Davy for a second. The battle began, and after the first round the Welshman went to his corner and asked Davy how he looked.

"Look like a lion," said Davy.

In the second round the Welshman had one eye closed, but Davy still declared his champion looked like a lion. At the end of the third round the Welshman was out. When he came to he looked through his swollen eyes at his second and said:

"'Ow do I look now, Davy?"

"Like a lion," said Davy.

"I don't feel like 'un. Did you never see a lion?"

"Yes, hindeed. Bill Jones 'as 'un."

"Hit hain't a lion, man. Hit's a jackass!"

"Well, that's 'ow you look!"

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average,	10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average	10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average	5 pr. ct
Total,	25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Mr. Frank P. Milburn, architect, of Washington, D. C., has been to Warranton drawing the plans for a $26,000 courthouse.

—Clarkton Express—If Bladen's representative in the next Legislature can just land us a good road law, he will have earned his pay; even if he does nothing else.

The following announcement of meetings of the Tobacco Farmers is made by Mr. E. J. Ragsdale, organizer of the Farmers' Protective Association:

Snow Hill .....July 23, 2:00 P. M.
LaGrange ... July 23, 8:00 P. M.
Kinston .....July 24, 2:00 P. M.
Wilson .....July 25, 11:00 A. M.

—Mount Olive Tribune: Mount Olive's splendid hotel, the Olivette, has again changed hands, the property having been sold by Mr. A. Gaston to Mrs. A. G. Cox, who takes charge this week; and under the new ownership and management it is easily predicted that Mount Olive will have one of the best conducted hotels in the State.

—A fine double team, owned and driven by J. W. Click, of Jerusalem, Davie county, was drowned Wednesday afternoon while crossing the Yadkin River eight miles from Salisbury, and Mr. Click himself had a narrow escape from drowning. The team became frightened and backed off the ferry boat when in the middle of the river where the water was fifteen feet deep. Mr. Click jumped into the water and swam ashore. The loss was about $500.

—Salisbury special, July 18: A band of citizens of Rowan are still bent on lynching the seven negroes in Charlotte jail for the murder of four members of the Lyerly family near this city last Saturday. A large amount of money has been raised to defray the expenses of several hundred men to Charlotte for the purpose of taking the negroes from the jail. The forces are at work and only time will tell the result. Feeling is high in the section where the murder was committed.

—Charlotte Observer: Postmaster R. W. Smith his finished his annual report to the Postoffice Department, which shows a very gratifying increase in the volume of business being done at Charlotte postoffice. The heavy increase of receipts at the local office is indicative of a healthy and substantial growth in Charlotte, for postoffice receipts are a pretty good index to a city's real size and condition. Mr. Smith's report shows that the total receipts for the fiscal year ending June 20th, were $93,426.54.

—Clarkton Express: The ladies of Clarkton and the surrounding country are especially invited to meet at the K. of P. hall, in Clarkton, Friday, July 27th, at 3 P. M. for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Those women entiled to membership are the widows, wives, mothers, sisters, nieces and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in the Confederate Army, Navy or Civil Service or of those persons who loyally gave material aid to the cause. Also women and their lineial descendents, wherever living, who can give proof of personal service or loyal aid to the Southern cause during the war.

—Washington, N. C., special, July 18: Mr. Louis Snell, chief of police of Belhaven, was shot down in cold blood this morning by Ellis Eborn, colored. Snell went to the home of Eborn at 7 o'clock to serve a warrant. Arriving he found Eborn at home and stated the cause of his visit. Eborn resisted arrest, secured a shot gun and fired on the officer. The load entered his side and arm, wounding him seriously, but not fatally. After the shooting, Eborn escaped to parts unknown. A posse of men is now scouring the country for the negro. The latest report from Belhaven is that Snell is resting very well and there are strong hopes for his recovery unless blood poison develops.

Durham special, July 18: As an end to the troubles between Abe Goldstein and his new wife the two have agreed on divorce separation. With that end in view they have gone to Norfolk and may go to Baltimore in order to take the proper steps before some rabbi. Agreements have been reached between the two and all that is now needed is for the church to sanction what has been done. Then there will be no trouble in the civil courts as the wife will leave for the North, or some other section, and Abe can get his divorce. This trouble between Mr. Goldstein and his new wife began almost immediately after their arrival in Durham from their bridal trip. He wanted a new wife to take the place of the one that was dead and he advertised in a paper in New York. He received an answer and went to Brooklyn, securing his second wife. Soon after getting here there was trouble between the two, which has continued off and on ever since. It is said that Mr. Goldstein, who is a man of means, has agreed to pay his wife $1,700 if she will leave him and sign a contract releasing him from further obligations towards her.

—Asheville special, July 18: The regular quarterly session of the Southern Vehicle Association was held at the Battery Park Hotel yesterday evening. Today the members of the National Wagon Manufacturers' Association held a meeting jointly with the Southern Vehicle Association. There are between twenty-five and thirty members of the associations here and all meetings are held in executive session. The time of the sessions is taken up principally with a discussion of business relative to vehicle manufacture and prices. Several papers pertainng to matters connected with the association have been read and addresses by P. P. Hunter, of the American Carriage Company, of Cincinnati, and George James, of Memphis, listened to. The Southern Vehicle Association and the National Wagon Association will hold an annual meeting jointly this year in Atlanta.

—Asheville special, July 17: Alex. Hyatt, a well known citizen of northern Buncombe, and a prosperous farmer, is in the Mission Hospital of this city, recovering from injuries received ten days ago in a manner most peculiar and which was believed for days would cost him his life. Mr. Hyatt has just undergone a difficult operation, performed by Drs. Barrett and Dan Sevier ,of this city, and the patient is now fairly on the road to recovery. On the 7th of July while doing some blasting, Mr. Hyatt hid behind a tree for a blast to go off, but a piece of rock in descending struck him on the head and crushed his skull. He fell unconscious, but later showed signs of improvement and was taken to the hospital. Several pieces of skull were lifted from the brain and removed, and then it was found that a small rock had imbedded itself in the victim's brain. This also was removed and the patient shortly began to rally. His conditon yesterday was reported as much improved, and today it was stated that unless complications set in he would recover. It is considered almost miraculous that the man lived for more than a week with the rock pressing into and against the barin.

—Richmond, Va., special, July 18: Thomas B. Johns, 25 years of age, who has been employed for several weeks in the clerical department of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, was taken into custody this morning on a charge of embezzlement. Johns was arrested by detectives who came from Sussex county, in which county the alleged crime was committed, for the purpose. The warrant charges Johns with the larceny of $100 of the funds of the Southern Railway. Several months ago Johns was employed as station agent for the Southern at Homeville. Johns was taken to Waverly this afternoon, where he was given a preliminary hearing. In default of bond, he was committed to jail. The officers followed him through three States in their effort to affect his capture. It is understood that Johns has a wealthy uncle in Charlotte, N. C., by the name of Eccles, who has refused to give him any assistance in this case. His father has also deserted him, saying that he has done all that he could for the reclamation of the boy in previous troubles. It is alleged that the young man is a moral degenerate. He seems to be the black sheep in an otherwise good family. Johns did not seem to realize the enormity of his offense until after he had been consigned to jail. Then he broke down and wept. The desertion of his family seemed to hurt him more than the realization of the crime with which he stands accused.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—

They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. [illegible] Clothing House, residing on [illegible] street, between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniment, but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers, I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

Advertisements to follow reading matter, or to occupy any special place, will be charged extra according to the position desired.

COMMERCIAL WASHINGTON.

Evidently Washington is not going to be satisfied with being the capital of the greatest country on the earth but is determined to be considered an American city—one that wants to get into the push, grow larger and attain commercial prominence. There is now a great movement on foot in Washington for a greater Washington The Star is glad to see it. It shows the American spirit and we sympathize with it. It is an ambitious plan which the Washingtonians have in hand and it is to be hoped it will be carried out.

According to a recent police census the city of Washington contains a population of 326,435, of which 95,018 are negroes. The city is growing in population, and the spirit of progress is there as well as elsewhere in the other cites of this country. It is the City Beautiful, but the people who are fortunate enough to live there want the city limts extended and are ambitious that Washington shall become a manufacturing city. Recently we noted that Washington is making claims to being the educational centre of the country, and now it proposes to be a commercial city. Judging from the spirit of the people and the powerful influence of the press, we are to see the Nation's capital made notable besides being the seat of government. This from the Washington Post shows that Washington is going to work on its own hook to do what is now on foot in that city:

"The business community of Washington is now asking itself a question which should have been asked and answered long ago. If Washington is able to keep pace with the rest of the country without exerting itself in a commercial way, why should it not grow relatively faster with an expenditure of energy?

"The business of entertaining Congress and visitors may have satisfied Washington in the past, but it will not hereafter. Business accumulates influence with its growth, and this influence is now being concentrated and exerted toward still greater expansion. The preponderating influence of those who clung to the notion that trade and commerce would detract from the beauty of Washington has given way to the more vital influence of finance and business, working together for a greater Washington—not a less beautiful, but a more beautiful and incomparably richer city. The people of Washington perceive that the esthetic side of life is not ignored in the greatest business centers of the country. Hand in hand with the increase of civic growth goes the transformation of the ugly into the beautiful. New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cleveland, and other cities can point to municipal beautification on a big scale, without a cent from outside quarters. Washington's civic spirit will be manifested still more promptly and emphatically, because of the expenditures by the government in improving its Capital. If the country thinks that Washington will sit back and wait for Congress to do it all, it is mistaken. For every dollar expended by Congress, Washington will furnish another dollar, as it has done for years.

"The mere fact that aWshington has grown in proportion with the country without especial effort on her part is now an incentive to the awakened business spirit to seize upon and develop the great possibilities here for trade and commerce. Already the chief gateway between the North and South, it is proposed to make Washington also the chief supply and distributing center of a thickly populated region. If Washington had been dependent upon business alone, as other cities are, its peculiar location would have been exploited long ago. Now that it has attained a population which includes powerful commercial and financial institutions, its growth commercially may be expected to be one of the surprising features of the next decade."

Go ahead, Washington. We like to see our Southern cities grow.

THE REPUBLICAN POLITICIAN DIED.

The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday, referring to the death of Postmaster A. M. Long, at Rockingham, Sunday morning, says editorially:

"The negro at Selma, who was shot by the telephone girl, and the Republican politician who died from the effects of a blow by the young woman who resented his insult, met their just deserts. Young women need to work for their living in stores, in offices, in telephone exchanges, in dining-room in factories, and elsewhere. They, therefore, are forced into contact with men of all sorts. It is the glory of this State that its men are as respectful to the dining-room waiters as to women in their own homes, and they are as safe in their business avocations as in social life. Whenever there is an exception and some man, drunk or sober, offers an insult, it is a matter for congratulation when the young woman can send a bullet into the heart or give a heavy blow to the man who would destroy her. It is a terrible penalty to pay, but it is a crime for which no penalty could be too severe."

As a matter of course any woman, in order to protect herself, is justifiable in even taking the life of her asailant. The Selma case was clearly justifiable and was moreover highly commendable. In the case at Greensboro, where a waitress at a hotel table was insulted by a delegate who attended the Republican State convention, the circumstances were different. The young lady resented the insult and broke a plate over the man's head, with no intent to kill him. She did right in resenting the insult and it was the man's misfortune that he died. However, if it is not quite the thing for girls to be killing men under and all circumstances. It makes no difference about the man but it does make a difference with the girl. Under extreme provocation a girl might kill and slay but the provocation should be undoubted. No woman wants blood on her hands unless she is completely justified. The man at Greensboro deserved a whack but in that case the homicide was unintentional. However, if women get to defending themselves in a way that men will be in peril of their lives, it is apt to make brutes take a second thought.

GOVERNMENT INSPECTORS.

Now comes along the philosopher of the Saratoga (N. Y.) Sun, who says:

"Secretary Wilson, who didn't catch the cotton report thieves in his own department, and whose inspectors did not catch the Chicago packers in their iniquities, is the most voluble believer in the efficacy of government inspectors under the new meat law.

With a quart of milk and a package of Jell-O Ice Cream Powder any one can make two quarts of Delicious Ice Cream in 10 minutes.
2 packages for 25c at Grocers or by mail. — When ordering by mail send name of grocer.

Well, government inspectors are simply ordinary bipeds, some times with their eyes blinded by bribes and some times conceitedly making mischief for which there is no decent excuse. A people that relies upon government inspection instead of the moral law will be the sport of the gods as well as of the crooks."

Most of the time the government appointee is some political hack, who is rewarded for his work for the party. He may not know very much about the inspection busines and he may learn or he may not. Nevertheless some people think if it's government inspection it is the thing. It may be or it may not be.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Once upon a time there was a pretty girl who was so pretty she had no friends.—New Orleans Picayune.

—While the candidacy of some men is looked upon as a joke it would not be a joke if they should happen to be elected.—Durham Herald.

—Mr. Blackburn's picture has appeared in the Industrial News and this is taken as a sign that it is all over.—Durham Herald.

—When it comes to breaking up the "Solid South," Mr. Taft will find it necessary to adopt other tactics than jumping on it.—Washington Post.

—The Congress can place any construction it pleases upon the fact that as soon as it adjourns the Executive and Cabinet officers feel safe in leaving the government in the hands of chief clerks—Washington Post.

—The keenest sufferers from the Thaw-White tragedy are the widow of the victim and the mother of the murderer. When Thaw's mother wept in his arms in prison yesterday, he must have felt in full force the folly of his career.—Savannah News.

—But there is a large gain in the presence of such a man as Mr. Tillman. He is apparently as honest as a man can be made and absolutely incorruptible. There is a tendency rapidly growing in the country to recognize in the pugnacious Southerner a force of real value to the Commonwealth. He is generally recognized to be a Cato, pugnacious and obstinate, but thoroughly honest and possessing good intentions. The country at large is not at all grieved but, rather, quite glad that we are to have another term of Tillman.—Watertown (N. Y.) Standard.

—In consequence of the policy declared by President Roosevelt that the United States will act as policemen for the countries to the South of us by preserving order there and compelling the payment of their debts to Europe, there is a distinct fear of us by some of the South American governments, and this appears to have unfavorable affected our trade with them. It is to allay these fears of our aggressive policy that Mr. Root will pay these visits, and incidentally see what can be done to open a greater market for our products.—Schenectady Gazette.

—The International Women's Congress, sitting in Paris, recently witnessed a ludicrous scene. The ladies were in solemn conclave when suddenly there appeared a pair of trousers on the scene. For a moment the ladies were too perturbed to identify the scectre, but after a monment of benumbing silence the President rallied, and in an icy tone identified it as "a man." Then the apparition relieved the tension by explaining that it was the mortal presence of M. Legendre, of Sens, an ardent femininist. "I stood," he said, "as femininist candidate at the last elections, and I have to-day taken eleven trains to appear among you. I am happy to enjoy this opportunity of supporting your cause." Alas for enthusiasm when it is of the male persuasion and relates to matters feminine! The President rose, and after explaining to M. Legendre, in tones of cold, calm severity, that the taking of eleven trains at a stretch did not confer the right of entry to that assemblage, had him expelled.—London Globe.

He Killed the Bill.

Senator Elkins was talking for statehood for New Mexico and Arizona the other day until they reminded him how he kept New Mexico out of the Union thirty years ago. Elkins was formerly a delegate in congress from New Mexico. Once he had the bill making New Mexico a state in such shape that it was ready to be called from the table and passed. Senator Burrows of Michigan, then in the house, made a sensational speech against the bill. Elkins was not in the chamber. As he came in somebody told him that Burrows had made a great statehood speech.

Elkins rushed down the aisle, shook hands with Burrows and warmly congratulated him. He thought Burrows had spoken for instead of against him. The Democrats who were going to vote for the bill saw Elkins effusively tell Burrows that he had made a great speech and concluded that if Elkins, who was father of the bill, felt that way toward a man who opposed the bill they could not afford to vote for it, and they didn't. The result was that the bill was beaten, and New Mexico isn't in yet. — New York World.

The Wrong Animal.

Ignorance of natural history—and some other things—played a part in a fight of which a well known actor tells a story.

A Welshman, he says, had taken boxing lessons until he thought he could whip anything of his weight. He thereupon challenged an Irishman to fight him to a finish, and the challenge was promptly accepted. The Welshman selected a fellow countryman named Davy for a second. The battle began, and after the first round the Welshman went to his corner and asked Davy how he looked.

"Look like a lion," said Davy.

In the second round the Welshman had one eye closed, but Davy still declared his champion looked like a lion. At the end of the third round the Welshman was out. When he came to he looked through his swollen eyes at his second and said:

"'Ow do I look now, Davy?"

"Like a lion," said Davy.

"I don't feel like 'un. Did you never see a lion?"

"Yes, hindeed. Bill Jones 'as 'un."

"Hit hain't a lion, man. Hit's a jackass!"

"Well, that's 'ow you look!"

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average, 10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average 10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average 5 pr. ct
Total, 25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

—Mount Olive Tribune: Mount Olive's splendid hotel, the Olivette, has again changed hands, the property having been sold by Mr. A. Gaston to Mrs. A. G. Cox, who takes charge this week; and under the new ownership and management it is easily predicted that Mount Olive will have one of the best conducted hotels in the State.

—A fine double team, owned and driven by J. W. Click, of Jerusalem, Davie county, was drowned Wednesday afternoon while crossing the Yadkin River eight miles from Salisbury, and Mr. Click himself had a narrow escape from drowning. The team became frightened and backed off the ferry boat when in the middle of the river where the water was fifteen feet deep. Mr. Click jumped into the water and swam ashore. The loss was about $500.

—Salisbury special, July 18: A band of citizens of Rowan are still bent on lynching the seven negroes in Charlotte jail for the murder of four members of the Lyerly family near this city last Saturday. A large amount of money has been raised to defray the expenses of several hundred men to Charlotte for the purpose of taking the negroes from the jail. The forces are at work and only time will tell the result. Feeling is high in the section where the murder was committed.

—Charlotte Observer: Postmaster R. W. Smith his finished his annual report to the Postoffice Department, which shows a very gratifying increase in the volume of business being done at Charlotte postoffice. The heavy increase of receipts at the local office is indicative of a healthy and substantial growth in Charlotte, for postoffice receipts are a pretty good index to a city's real size and condition. Mr. Smith's report shows that the total receipts for the fiscal year ending June 20th, were $93,426.54.

—Clarkton Express: The ladies of Clarkton and the surrounding country are especially invited to meet at the K. of P. hall, in Clarkton, Friday, July 27th, at 3 P. M. for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Those women entiled to membership are the widows, wives, mothers, sisters, nieces and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in the Confederate Army, Navy or Civil Service or of those persons who loyally gave material aid to the cause. Also women and their lineial descendents, wherever living, who can give proof of personal service or loyal aid to the Southern cause during the war.

—Washington, N. C., special, July 18: Mr. Louis Snell, chief of police of Belhaven, was shot down in cold blood this morning by Ellis Eborn, colored. Snell went to the home of Eborn at 7 o'clock to serve a warrant. Arriving he found Eborn at home and stated the cause of his visit. Eborn resisted arrest, secured a shot gun and fired on the officer. The load entered his side and arm, wounding him seriously, but not fatally. After the shooting, Eborn escaped to parts unknown. A posse of men is now scouring the country for the negro. The latest report from Belhaven is that Snell is resting very well and there are strong hopes for his recovery unless blood poison develops.

Durham special, July 18: As an end to the troubles between Abe Goldstein and his new wife the two have agreed on divorce separation. With that end in view they have gone to Norfolk and may go to Baltimore in order to take the proper steps before some rabbi. Agreements have been reached between the two and all that is now needed is for the church to sanction what has been done. Then there will be no trouble in the civil courts as the wife will leave for the North, or some other section, and Abe can get his divorce. This trouble between Mr. Goldstein and his new wife began almost immediately after their arrival in Durham from their bridal trip. He wanted a new wife to take the place of the one that was dead and he advertised in a paper in New York. He received an answer and went to Brooklyn, securing his second wife. Soon after getting here there was trouble between the two, which has continued off and on ever since. It is said that Mr. Goldstein, who is a man of means, has agreed to pay his wife $1,700 if she will leave him and sign a contract releasing him from further obligations towards her.

—Asheville special, July 18: The regular quarterly session of the Southern Vehicle Association was held at the Battery Park Hotel yesterday evening. Today the members of the National Wagon Manufacturers' Asscciation held a meeting jointly with the Southern Vehicle Association. There are between twenty-five and thirty members of the associations here and all meetings are held in executive session. The time of the sessions is taken up principally with a discussion of business relative to vehicle manufacture and prices. Several papers pertainng to matters connected with the association have been read and addresses by P. P. Hunter, of the American Carriage Company, of Cincinnati, and George James, of Memphis, listened to. The Southern Vehicle Association and the National Wagon Association will hold an annual meeting jointly this year in Atlanta.

—Asheville special, July 17: Alex. Hyatt, a well known citizen of northern Buncombe, and a prosperous farmer, is in the Mission Hospital of this city, recovering from injuries received ten days ago in a manner most peculiar and which was believed for days would cost him his life. Mr. Hyatt has just undergone a difficult operation, performed by Drs. Barrett and Dan Sevier ,of this city, and the patient is now fairly on the road to recovery. On the 7th of July while doing some blasting, Mr. Hyatt hid behind a tree for a blast to go off, but a piece of rock in descending struck him on the head and crushed his skull. He fell unconscious, but later showed signs of improvement and was taken to the hospital. Several pieces of skull were lifted from the brain and removed, and then it was found that a small rock had imbedded itself in the victim's brain. This also was removed and the patient shortly began to rally. His conditon yesterday was reported as much improved, and today it was stated that unless complications set in he would recover. It is considered almost miraculous that the man lived for more than a week with the rock pressing into and against the barin.

—Richmond, Va., special, July 18: Thomas B. Johns, 25 years of age, who has been employed for several weeks in the clerical department of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, was taken into custody this morning on a charge of embezzlement. Johns was arrested by detectives who came from Sussex county, in which county the alleged crime was committed, for the purpose. The warrant charges Johns with the larceny of $100 of the funds of the Southern Railway. Several months ago Johns was employed as station agent for the Southern at Homeville. Johns was taken to Waverly this afternoon, where he was given a preliminary hearing. In default of bond, he was committed to jail. The officers followed him through three States in their effort to affect his capture. It is understood that Johns has a wealthy uncle in Charlotte, N. C., by the name of Eccles, who has refused to give him any assistance in this case. His father has also deserted him, saying that he has done all that he could for the reclamation of the boy in previous troubles. It is alleged that the young man is a moral degenerate. He seems to be the black sheep in an otherwise good family. Johns did not seem to realize the enormity of his offense until after he had been consigned to jail. Then he broke down and wept. The desertion of his family seemed to hurt him more than the realization of the crime with which he stands accused.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—

They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street, between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and limiment, but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers, I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Garnishment in Georgia.

Justice Bornemann had an interesting complication to settle in his court yesterday, growing out of the garnishee of wages, amounting to $58.14 and due Mr. B. M. Hill, a carpenter in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city It seems that the garnishee was by a collection agency operating in Georgia, and under the laws of that State, a garnishee law in this State being unavailable. The claim was for $16.12 and was in favor of J. W. Capps, who had placed the claim in the hands of W. P. Gafford, Esq., for collection. In the meantime Mr. Hill had settled his indebtedness to Mr. Capps, but on account of the distance the garnishee in Georgia could not be released and the wages of Mr. Hill were and are still tied up. He brought suit in Justice Bornemann's court on the ground that the garnishee was illegal in this State and won the issue. However, pending the settlement of the case in Georgia, nothing could be done, the railroad company having taken an appeal to allow time for investigation.

Candidates are Assessed.

Chairman Jas. H. Burriss, of the Democratic County Executive Committee, pursuant to resolution at the last meeting of the committee, is now engaged in canvassing the candidates for county offices before the September primaries, asking that they bear the expense of the primaries. The county now has a legalized primary law, but no provision is made for the expense of holding primaries under the same. The committee at its last meeting went almost to the extreme of barring from the primary any candidate who would not contribute his share of the expense of holding such primary. All the candidates have now been assessed to meet the cost, and Chairman Burriss is asking all to pay up, as bills of this character are always hard to collect after the result is decided.

Baraca Rally To-night.

The Baraca and Philathea classes of the Second Advent church are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the rally to be given at the church to-night. An attractive programme has been arranged and a large attendance is expected. Rev. Jno. A. Cargile, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will be the principal speaker. Other features will be an address by Mr. W. E. Merritt, president of the First Baptist church Baraca, and a solo by Miss Lucy McIntosh, one of Wilmington's favorite vocalists. The public is invited to attend the service.

Married at Southport.

Mr. James Guthrie and bride, nee Miss Bessie Savage, of Southport, arrived in the city yesterday and were given the warmest felicitations by a great many friends. They were married at the home of the bride's father, Capt. T. M. Savage, at Southport, Wednesday night and came up to the city on the steamer yesterday morning. They will make their home at the corner of Sixth and Ann streets. The bride is a sister of Miss Rachel Savage, of this city, and is a young woman much loved and admired in a wide circle of friends.

BLUITT FALLS POWER.

Manufacturers' Record on Big Development Scheme in Progress.

In its issue of this week, the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record says:

"Another big water-power development for electrical purposes in the South is involved in the announcement that plans have been completed for the development of 12,000 horsepower immediately and 28,800 horsepower ultimately at a point on the Yadkin River, eight miles from Rockingham, N. C., and that the construction of the necessary means will be carried forward as rapidly as possible. The developing dam, to be located on the Yadkin, will be 1,650 feet long and 45 feet high, built of concrete, and the first installation of machinery will be for the delivery of 12,000 horsepower unless contracts shall have been made for the delivery of more than that before the dam is completed, it being estimated that a total of 28,800 horse-power can be obtained and distributed by electricity within a radius of 50 miles of the plant. Contracts for the construction of this dam for the electrical equipment and for the water wheels have been awarded. The site of the enterprihe is in a district where probably 700,000 are engaged in growing cotton or in manufacturing it, and within the 50-mile radius there are at least fifty cotton factories using about 25,000 horsepower, developed by steam, besides other industries."

BUILDING PERMITS YESTERDAY.

Waehouse on Wharf and Store on North Fourth Street.

From the office of Building Inspector H. E. Bonitz, the following building permits were issued yesterday:

D. L. Gore Company, two-story, tin-roof brick warehouse, to be used for storage purposes and to cost $1,000, on Water street, between Princess and Chestnut streets.

Z. E. Murrell ,two-story store, to cost $1,500, on Fourth street, between Hanover and Brunswick streets.

W. M. Cumming, permit to move one-story dwelling from Nun, between Fourth and Fifth streets, to Church, between Fifth and Sixth streets, to cost $350; Vrans Swann, contractor.

Negro Workman Injured.

George Kelley, a colored laborer, employed at the new fertilizer works of Swift & Co., up the river, fell 20 feet from a scaffolding at the works yesterday and was so badly injured about the hips and back that it was necessary to send him to the hospital. The negro was engaged in pulling cement up on the second floor of the acid plant of the new works and took hold of a crane to pull it in when he lost his balance and fell. He was brought down on the yacht Eloise and sent out to the hospital.

HOME-COMING AT WADESBORO.

Alleged Lynchers, Against Whom Indictsments Were Quashed by Judge.

Wadesboro, July 19.—Last night was home-coming night with the many Ansonians who attended the trial of the alleged Anson county lynchers of John V. Johnson at Monroe, which began last Monday morning. There were eager crowds at the stations between Monroe and Wadesboro to cheer them as they passed through. They were also greeted by a large crowd on their return home.

The Anson county people were kindly received by the Monroe people and there were many remarks made concerning their hospitality by the "boys" on the train last evening. Several Monroe men offered to go on the bonds of the alleged lynchers, but the men who accompanied them to Monroe easily signed their bonds.

There was a slight wreck on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad yesterday afternoon between Morven and Wadesboro. The freight—there is one freight and one passenger train daily on this line—as it generally does, left before the passenger train, and when it had reached a point about four miles below Wadesboro two box cars jumped the track, tearing it up for some distance. The passenger train went to its rescue, but it was only with hard work that the track was placed in order so that the trains could pass with safety this morning, after being delayed seventeen hours.

BUILD GREAT DRYDOCK.

It Will Be the Largest One in the World.

Washington, July 19.—Plans for the largest and best drydock in the world are being prepared in the bureau of yards and docks at the Navy Department.

The last naval appropriation act contained a provision for a dock to cost $1,250,000, to be constructed at the Bremerton navy yard, Puget Sound, Washington. This amount is larger than ever heretofore appropriated for a dock and the new dock will, when completed, be able to take in the largest battleship, either in course of construction or in contemplation.

The location for the dock has already been selected at the yard and borings are now being made to learn the depth of the foundation. It is to be a concrete dock of the latest pattern and the materials will be purchased on the Pacific coast if practicable.

The dock is to be so constructed that it can be lengthened if vessels of greater length should be built in the future. It will be thirty-seven feet in depth over sill, which will provide for the docking of any vessel that can be built unless some unknown system of building is developed. The greater depth of the new dock is also designed to meet cases where a vessel has been injured and draws much more than the ordinary depth on account of the injury.

ROOSEVELT WRONG SAYS MR. JEROME

President Was Indiscrete in Denouncing Decision of Chicago Federal Judge.

POWER OF PUBLIC OPINION

New York District Attorney Discussed That Subject Before Georgia Bar Association Yesterday—Criticism of Courts.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Warm Springs, Ga., July 19.—District Attorney Jerome delivered an address on "Public Opinion; its power, some of its evils and injustices and our duty as lawyers to it," before the Georgia Bar Association tonight. In the course of his address, Mr. Jerome referred to President Roosevelt's criticism of a United States court judge, saying:

"There is one injustice which public opinion not infrequently does, and one which lawyers do much to correct and that is the criticism of judges for decisions which they could not avoid making if they obeyed the law. The recent spectacle of the nation's Chief Executive, himself not a lawyer, criticising in a public document a Federal judge for his decison on a point of law, has not, I believe commended itself to our profession. The laws are our laws. Public opinion then can change them. Every citizen has a right to criticise them and seek their amendment or repeal, but while they are our laws, we want our judges to obey them and not substitute for them something they deem in accord with a thing so mutable and so difficult to ascertain as public opinion. The soundness of a judge's legal judgment and the wisdom of a particular law may well be called in question, but an honest decision should not expose the judge himself to criticism."

At the beginning Mr. Jerome said there are men guided by a high sense of duty who will do and continue to do their duty as they see it, regardless of the majority opinion which we call public opinion, but with effort and repression.

"The man who declares he is indifferent to public opinion," said Mr. Jerome, "if he be not a fanatic, is too often something of a fool and a knave—a knave to lie and a fool to think you believe him. To a public officer the discharge of his duty with or in the face of public opinion is like the difference in the running of an engine with oiled or sanded bearings.

"How potent public opinion is every where is evident to the lawyer. What more solemn declaration of its will can a people make than to declare in its constitution that a thing shall not be done and that the legislative body shall enact sufficient laws to prevent the doing of a prohibited act, and yet has Maine, for example, been able to enforce its prohibitive laws? Do not its sworn officers almost everywhere fail to fulfill their oaths of office? Like officers do not fail in their duties where crimes such as larceny are concerned.

"In my own State the constitution prohibits gambling and enjoins the Legislature to pass laws to prevent it. The Legislature, however, has dared to pass a law which while in form aimed to prevent gambling on race tracks, was notoriously designed to protect it and this was possible only because public opinion permitted. Whatever its cause and whatever its history, public opinion stands to-day as the most important single influence in the life of the nation.

"In many parts of the country and especially in our great cities, a man's ability to command a hearing must largely depend upon the newspapers and it is by them that the greatest justice, and sometimes the greatest injustice, is done. If public opinion is the greatest single force in our public life surely the newspaper is incomparably the greatest factor in its formation and spread."

EIGHT HOUR LAW VIOLATIONS.

Roosevelt and Taft to See Punishment Inflicted.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 19.—Action of the greatest importance to labor circles is contemplated in a direction given by the President to officers in charge of public works at the instance of Secretary Taft. This is to employ the governments own officers to detect and punish violations of the law of 1892 providing that except in case on an emergency work upon government buildings, ships and other properties shall be limited to eight hours each day for each workman.

An effort was made by the forces of organized labor during the last session of Congress to secure legislation to this end but so effective was the opposition of the great contracting firms that adjournment was had without any action upon the pending bill. Under the President's direction every government officer in charge of or inspecting a public work in progress is to be directed to promptly report to the Department of Justice any violation by contractors of the eight-hour law and prosecution initiated by and at the expense of the government is to follow.

The effect of the order upon the cost of government work is expected to be very great. It is known that it has been almost the rule for government contractors to work their men ten and twelve and even more hours per day, if they cannot do this they assert that they must increase by twenty or twenty-five per cent. the amount of their bids; so that Congress must either increase by like percenages the appropriations for public works or must correspondingly reduce the amount of work authorized.

It has been found that quite a number of employes are not subject to the operations of the eight hour law, being neither laborers or mechanics, the classes referred to in the act. Still many thousands workmen in all parts of the country will be affected by the President's order.

ELKS RECEIVED SNOWBALLING.

Twentieth Re-union Closed With Grand Pageant.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., July 19.—Festivities in connection with the twentieth reunion of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks culminated to-day in the annual parade, which was the finest pageant Denver has eyer witnessed.

There were in line nearly 12,400 Elks, representing 246 lodges. Many magnificent floats illustrative of the cities whose lodges provided them, were also in the parade. Interspersed in the procession were twenty-eight bands, the Royal Hawaiian Concert Band dividing the place of honor at the head of the line with the Midland Band of Colorado Springs. Denver lodge, 600 strong, and its mounted escort team, all in blue serge suits with purple cuffs and collars and white straw hats with purple bands, acted as escort of honor to Grand Squire P. P. Christensen and staff. Ladies and children accompanying the Elks generally rode in carriages and automobiles, constituting the seventh and last division of the parade.

Along Sixteenth street the marchers were showered with flowers and snow balls, several car loads of snow having been brought from the Continental divide to show the diversity of Colorado's climate. The temperature on the street while the snow balling was in progress was 85 degrees.

PIPE TRUST SURRENDERS

Will Go Out of Business Rather Than Be Investigated.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Jamestown, N. Y., July 19.—The Sewer Pipe and Trade Association, familiarly known as the Sewer Pipe Trust, practically entered a plea of guilty to the charges of a second contract to limit the production and control of the territory and prices of sewer pipe, before the Federal grand jury in this city to-day. United States District Attorney Brown had prepared a mass of evidence against the company which he was intending to present the grand jury when Harry A. Hall, of Pittsburg, attorney for the association, submitted the proposition that rather than submit to the proposed investigation by the grand jury he would enter into an agreement whereby the association would be dissolved and go out of business. The proposition was accepted by the district attorney.

PEASANT UPRISING IN RUSSIA.

Pillaging and Burning on Immense Scale—Troops Powerless.

Moscow, July 19.—A landlord fleeing from Bobrov, in the province of Voronetzh, where a peasant uprising has taken place has arrived here and gives a frightful picture of the devastation. He describes the losses in the provinces as colossal. The troops are powerless to cope with the peasants, who are marching in large bands, destroying practically everything. Not more than one-tenth of the estates are spared. Upon approaching a village, an advance detachment of the peasants enters, announces that it is being pursued by 6,000 troops with machine guns and asks for support. The villagers, thereupon, join the rioters and the procession moves on. The movement started by the refusal of the landlords of the northern part of Bobrow district to agree to an advance of wages to the farm women. The ripening crops are not being harvested.

FELL OVER BOARD AT SEA

Atlanta Lawyer Missing from Steamer's Passengers.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 19.—That Walter Ormond, a lawyer from Atlanta, Ga., fell over board and was drowned from the steamer Kansas City, while en route from Savannah, Ga., to this city, became known to-day when the steamer arrived. The drowning happened yesterday while the Kansas City was coming up the coast. Mr. Ormond was on his way to New York in company with Harvey Hill and a Mr. Lott and Mr. Brown. He occupied a stateroom in company with Mr. Hill who reported to the officers of the steamship company to-day that Ormond left their stateroom about midnight, saying that he was going on deck to obtain relief from the heat. Nothing was seen of him afterward. Mr. Hill said he believed Ormond had fallen asleep while sitting on the rail and had accidently fallen overboard. His absence was not discovered until several hours later.

Atlanta, July 19.—Judge Walter Ormond, whose death by drowning from the steamer Kansas City, as announced to-day from New York, was one of the prominent young lawyers of Atlanta. He was about 35 years old and unmarried. For the last two years he has been a justice of the peace He left last week with a number of friends for a vacation in New York and the East. He leaves a mother and sister, with whom he resided here and a brother.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Narragansett, Pier, R. I., July 19.—Louis A. Gourdain, the alleged Chicago and New Orleans lottery dealer, who is seeking to be returned to the Joilet, Ills., penitentiary from which he was recently released arrived here from New York tonight and went to the home of Justice White of the Supreme Court of the United States. Justice White informed him that the clerk of the Supreme Court in Washington did right in declining to receive his petiton and Gourdain expressed himself as satisfied with this advice. The justice also said he could not accept the petition or order if filed by the clerk of the court.

The interview between Justice White and his visitor was a pleasant one, as Justice White was formerly acquainted with Gourdain's father, and obth came from LaFourche Parish, Louisana.

WANTS GEN. STOESSEL SHOT.

Commission to Investigate Surrender of Port Arthur So Recommends.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, July 19.—The commission appointed to investigate the surrender of Port Arthur has finished its labors and recommends that Lieutenant General Stoessel, the former commander of the Russian forces at Port Arthur, be dismissed from the army and shot; that Lieutenant General Fock, who commanded the Fourth East Siberian division at Port Arthur, be dismissed from the army and undergo a year's hard labor; that General Reiss, chief of staff of General Stoessel, be dismissed and banished, and that Admiral Alexieff, former viceroy in the Far East; Lieutenant General Smirnoff, commander of the Port Arthur fortress, and General Vernander be reprimanded.

The formal trial of these officials will take place shortly.

WARM WIRELETS.

A Paris cablegram says Sarah Bernhardt has been decorated with the Cross of the Legion of Honor, after years of agitation on the question whether that distinction could be conferred on her.

Miss Annie Wimbish, aged 16, and Robert Wimbish, five years old, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wimbish, of Savannah, Ga., were burned to death Wednesday night at the home of their grandfather, W. G. Jordan, at Fort Valley, Ga.

The handsome steamer Pokanoket, recently placed in commission by the Petersburg, Newport News and Norfolk Steamship Compauy, sank at her wharf in Peterasburg Wednesday night. A mutinous negro fireman was arrested yesterday, charged with having opened her sea cocks.

Practically all the large cotton mills in New England by the first of August will be paying increased wages to their employes. Notices announcing advances were posted yesterday in several mills in New Hampshire and Maine, where several thousand hands are employed. The movement in the northern mill centers follows that recently made in Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont and Southern Massachusetts mills. In most instances the advances were voluntary.

In New York last night a collision took place betwen the excursion steamers Thomas Patten, of the Patten Line, and the Peerus, of the Iron Steamboat Company, the latter plying from New York to Coney Island. The vessels had about 1,500 passengers on board and a wild panic ensued, but no one was seriously injured. The passengers were taken off by ferry boats.

Michigan Democrats, knowing who is going to be the nominee of the party for President, are now booming the Hon. John F. Bible for Vice President. Look at that name, will you. He's a Democrat, too.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. NORTH CAROLINA TAKING LEAD

Startling Comparison Shown In Report of Department of Commerce and Labor—South and Manufacturing.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, July 18.—That more money is being taken to the South for investment in factories than to the New England States is shown in the startling comparison just made by the Department of Commerce and Labor, which states that four times as much capital was invested in the Southern States since 1900 than in New England. ...

In North Carolina where $68,000,000 was invested in 1900, there is now engaged in manufacturing industries over the State the sum of $131,000,000, showing an increase of 106 per cent. The total amount of wages paid out was increased $7,000,000, and where the cost of materials used in 1900 was $44,000,000, last year it amounted to $80,000,000. Some figures are given of Connecticut, and show that her increase in capital invested is only 24 per cent. New Hampshire shows only an 18 per cent increase. Alabama, on the other hand, shows her capital to have increased in the five years by 75 per cent. Virginia is below her sister Southern States with an increase of only 60 per cent. South Carolina shows an increase of 80 per cent. These figures are significant in showing that the trend of capital is working its way South and at a rate which indicates that in a few years the Southern States will rank with New England in manufactures. Factories for common goods rank first in the South, with tobacco second; lumber and timber products third with flour and grist mill products fourth.

GIRLS SOUTH AND GIRLS NORTH.

Compliments Bunch of Tennessee Beauties Got in New York.

(New York Mail.)

All girls down South are "popular." All of them deserve it. Circumstances combine to make them ineffable. Guarded by a fine chrivalry, stimulated by social freedom, generously endowed with the charms of blood and beauty, they are all born princesses. And the seventeen "most popular" of them, chosen by a sort of public plebisite, ought to be the cream of the cream.

These seventeen are now in this city. A Chattanooga newspaper sent them here to have a good time, and if there is any chivalry left in the metropolis they ought to get it.

The Southern girl of the best type is the most delightful paradox in the world. In these days all the old cloister guardianship of her has disappeared. She goes where she pleases, and does what she likes. She luxurates as a "co-ed" at the State universities—not scorned, like her sister at Ann Arbor or Cornell, put petted and glorified. She appears at public receptions, and she rides and drives and dances. But always under the jealous protection of manly honor.

The average Southern girl, educated and ambitious, chafes a little under this very protection, and yearns for New York and its supposed equality of opportunity for women. She sighs to be a Bohemian "bachelor girl" here. She does not know when she is well off. The metropolis has no such opportunity for her as the paradise into which she was born and in which she daily moves.

Candor compels us to tell the seventeen superlatively popular Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee girls this. After they have had the time of their life here, they will go back South, if they are wise. Ours is a hard, workaday world, where even girls are under the lash of the taskmaster Efficiency. The happy South knows not the name of that restless tyrant.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 19.—The cotton market was unsettled during to-day's session with fluctuations irregular. The close was barely steady at a decline of 6 points to 2 points up, the gains being on the more remote positions. Sales 125,000 bales.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 4 points and shortly afterward all the active months were five to eight points higher on covering of shorts and bull support, which was inspired by the firmness of the Liverpool market, reports of a good spot demand, at firm prices, and continued rains over the belt, accompanied by crop damage reports from the eastern belt and a few localities in the central and western belts. At the advance offerings increased and after the demand from local shorts had been supplied the market turned easier. Fluctuations during the middle session were very narrow, but toward the close the market was quite weak and unsettled with last prices at the lowest of the day. August showed the maximum loss. Private predictions for clearing weather in the South were partly responsible for the decline, and there was no sign of bull support during the late trading. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged. The official forecast called for showers in parts of the eastern and western belts.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 2,422 against 2,765 last week and 15,667 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 27,636 last week and 103,715 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 346 bales against 2,585 last year and at Houston 185 bales against 3,943 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 11.00; middling gulf 11.25; sales 100 bales. Futures closed barely steady. Prices follow:

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

The great efficiency and reliability of Danderine as a hair grower and scalp regenerator have won the confidence and patronage of millions and millions of people throughout the United States. It has attained a larger sale and is more generally used than any other article—toilet or medicinal—that has ever been sold or handled by the Drug trade in this country.

DANDERINE makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertiliser and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in THREE SIZES, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

BOODLE TO ELECT MR. ROOSEVELT

Senator Dryden, President of Prudential Life Insurance Company Under Fine.

$26,000 FOR CAMPAIGN FUND

Acknowledges That $6,000 at One Time and $10,000 in Two Other Campaigns Went to Republican Corruption Fund.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Newark, N. J., July 19.—United States Senator John F. Dryden, president of the Prudential Insurance Company, was a witness to-day before the State Insurance Investigating Committee. He was questioned regarding his salary of $65,000 a year, and asked if he did not think that his and other large salaries paid officials of the company tended toward extravagance. His reply was:

"Ability commands price, and every big enterprise in the country is looking for men who can achieve."

Senator Dryden said that since 1887, $6,500,000 of the surplus of the Prudential had been turned over to policy-holders, but that the company was not bound to turn over one cent.

Senator Dryden was examined along the lines of his statements before the Armstrong committee in New York, and some of his assertions were gone into more fully than on that occasion. He said that the Prudential Company had contributed $6,000 to the Republican National Committee in 1896, and in 1900 had contributed $10,000, and that the larger amount was donated again in 1904.

"Senator, do you think it was right to give the policy-holders' money away for campaign purposes?" asked State Senator Minturn.

"The policy-holders never had one cent of interest in that money. It belonged to the shareholders," replied the witness.

"How do you discriminate? You testified this morning that the surplus belonged to the policy-holders and not to the stockholders."

"What was applied to the credit of the policy-holders was voted to them by the directors," said Senator Dryden.

"And you considered the act of giving that money to the Republican committee justifiable."

"The management of the company is charged with the responsibility of the company, and if, in the judgment of the directors, conditions are likely to be brought about that would tend to destroy the company's assets, or impair them, it is the duty of the management to protect it."

NEW FLYING MACHINE TESTED

Santos Dumont Goes Up in Big Affair at Paris.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Paris, July 19.—Santos Dumont today began experiments with a flying machine which he has just completed. It is in the form of an enormous bird, 300 feet long, weighing 325 pounds and driven by a twenty-four horsepower motor. M. Dumont to-day made three flights with the machine suspended from a balloon, but later, after the Aero Club had fixed a date, he will attempt to fly without the assistance of the balloon.

SENSATIONAL ATTACK ON AUGUSTUS HARTJE

Wife's Lawyers Make Strong Showing That There Was Conspiracy to Defame Her—Perjured Negro Paid to Keep Away.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, July 19.—Following a sensational attack on the character of Augustus Hartje, in which it was alleged he had taken two different women frequently to a questionable resort, was the real sensation of the day in the Hartje divorce trial culminated this afternoon when Judge Robert S. Frazer admitted, under bitter protest of opposing counsel, testimony relating to the charges of conspiracy against John L. Welshons, a prominent merchant; Augustus Hartje, the libellant; and Clifford Hooe, the negro coachman, now in jail on perjury charges for alleged false swearing in the case.

Welshons, who was called by Mrs. Hartje's counsel told a clear story of how the depositon was secured from Hooe. He said that Hooe then left the city and the witness told of having given him various small sums of money at different times. This looked like blackmail, the witness said. He said he might have told Hooe that he would be sent to the penitentiary for perjury if he did not stick to his original story. Welshons story, it is said, coincides very closely to the statement of Hooe, relating to the case, which is in the possession of the district attorney.

This was the first attempt during the trial to present evidence of an alleged conspiracy which Mrs. Hartje's counsel declare was formed to defame her. Welshons is a close friend of Augustus Hartje. Hooe months ago, adopted a deposition in which he said he had been intimate with Mrs. Hartje. He afterwards repudiated it, and is now in jail on a charge of perjury. Welshons said that Hooe's deposition was taken in his store by Attorney Edward G. Hartje, Augustus Hartje's brother, and Attorney Andrew Fisher, Hartje's brother-in-law. Welshons detailed how he assisted Hooe to get away from the detectives in New Jersey and of the various times that he gave Hooe money on his demand. Welshons, however, declared that Augustus Hartje knew nothing of the fact that Welshons was paying Hooe money and that he never spoke to him about it.

Welshons admitted that Hartje's attorneys had told Hooe that if he was not telling the truth they would prosecute him. Welshons foiled every attempt made to show that he had conspired with Hartje to get Hooe to make the deposition.

In placing Mr. Welshons on the stand Attorney John M. Freeman, for Mrs. Hartje, said that he did so to prove that an attempt had been made to tamper with witnesses. They said they had a letter showing that the defense had taken the depositon of a witness knowing that his testimony was false and that they also would show that an attempt had been made to tamper with witnesses.

Mrs. Hartje's counsel opened up a new line in the defense by presenting evidence to show that Hartje had visited a disorderly house and had met an immoral woman there. The chief witness as to this was a servant in the house, and a hot fight was made by Hartje's attorneys against admitting this evidence. After a reading of Mrs. Hartje's bill of particulars and finding that Mrs. Hartje had accused her husband of adultery, Judge Robert Frazer decided to admit the evidence.

TYPOTHETAE OF AMERICA.

Meeting at Buffalo Refuses to Confer With Typographical Union.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Buffalo, N. Y., July 19.—The United Typothetate of America to-day flatly declined to confer with officials of the International Typographical Union in regard to the strike inaugurated nearly a year ago for an eight-hour day and the closed shops. President Ellis, of the Typothetate, received a letter signed by James M. Lynch, president, and J. W. Hays, vice president, representing the executive council of the International Typographical Union, stating that they were ready for a conference with a view to adjusting the differences that now exist. "Failing in obtaining this conference," the letter read, "the temper of the members of the typographical union will demand a continuance of the struggle."

After this letter had been read the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the Typothetate of America, in convention assembled, that they have nothing on which to confer with representatives of the International Typographical Union and that Mr. Lynch and Mr. Hays be so informed."

The following officers were elected by acclamation:

President—George H. Ellis, Boston.

Vice President—William D. Reene, New York.

Treasurer—Thomas E. Donnolly, Chicago.

Selection of the next convention city was left to the executive committee.

EXPLOSION IN COAL MINE.

Five Men Kiled and Others Injured in West Virginia.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Bluefield, W. Va., July 19.—As a result of an explosion in the Dixon mine at Huger, in the east end of the Tug river field at 8 o'clock tonight, Wallace Mitchell and ofur miners, Ernest Jones, Palmer Harris and Robert Harris, brothers, and John Gilmore are dead and Bill Crouse and Langdon Whiteside will die from burns and shocks.

The men were going on duty for the night and had started down the shaft in a bucket. They had gone half way down when the explosion occured. The first five men named were blown out of the bucket and down to the bottom of the shaft where they were later picked up. Their bodies were crushed almost to a pulp. The explosion was caused by the men having a gasoline lamp in the bucket, while descending, the light igniting an accumulation of gas. The safety lamps are ordinarily used in entering and it is not known why the men carried the gasoline lamp.

HARRY K. THAW CHANGES COUNSEL

Judge Olcott Turns Over Defense to Clifford W. Hartridge Yesterday.

DETECTIVE REPORTS HELD

Says Information Secured by Secret Agents Does Not Belong to Thaw —Mrs. Thaw Gives Another History of Life.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 19.—Peace apparently has been declared among the lawyers who at various times have represented Harry K. Thaw since the night he shot and killed Stanford White on the Madison Square Garden roof. Today former Judge Olcott of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge turned over to Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's personal attorney, all the papers he had in the case with the exception of the reports of private detectives which have made to him since the murder was committed. As a reason for retaining this Judge Olcott said there was a question in his mind as to whether they belonged to Thaw or to the person who paid for them. He did not indicate who the person was who paid for the detectives services.

Justice McLean in the Supreme Court today heard arguments on the application of Thaw's counsel for an absolute writ of prohibition directed against the district attorney and the July grand jury to stop the taking of testimony against Thaw without the prisoner being represented. Decision was reserved.

Mrs. Harry Thaw, after visiting her husband in the Tombs today, went to the office of Mr. Hartridge and made another long affidavit giving a history of her life since the time she came to New York. Mrs. Thaw had previously made such a statement to Mr. Olcott.

Mr. Hartridge called on Thaw late this afternoon. When he came out of the Tombs, he said: "There is not much more I can say at this time. Harry is in a good frame of mind and apparently glad that his legal affairs have been straightened out at last."

NORWEGIAN SHIP LIBELED.

United States Government Claims $5,347.50 Damages.

Norfolk, Va., July 19.—Assistant District Attorney Robert H. Talley today drew up papers which led to the libeling by the United States government of the Norwegian steamer Guernsey, which drifted into the battleship Rhode Island off Newport News on Tuesday night.

The government's claim is $5,347.50 The papers were served by Deputy Marshal Miller on Captain Anders A. Gjertsan, commander of the Guernsey, which lay at the Newport News shipyard.

In the bill of complaint filed by the government, it is stated that the port quarter of the steamer struck the battleship and overlapped her on starboard bow and that stanchions 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 were demolished.

The bill further states that three-inch guns 1, 2 and 3 were damaged, and gun mounts 1 and 3 also damaged. The vessel was not struck below the water line. The Rhode Island is still lying off Newport News.

CONTINUOUS SHOCKS TERRIFY THE PEOPLE

Every House in New Mexico Town Damaged By Earthquake and Some People Are Camping in the Open-Mountains Slides.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Sante Fe, N. M., July 19.—Continuous earthquake shocks at Socorro since July 8, causing considerable damage to property, caused a panic among the residents yesterday, and today about 2,000 persons are camping in the open, while hundreds of others have fled the city. Practically every residence and business block in the town has been damaged. There has been much distress among the people, as heavy rains have fallen in the last two days. Nobody has been injured so far as known. Most of the people are going to El Paso, although many are coming to Sante Fe.

The shocks generally occur as short, sharp jolts, the ground seeming to slip violently. It is believed the adjustment of rock strata in the rugged Ladrone and Magdalena mountains is the cause of the continued shocks.

Provisions are growing scarce and real distress is feared. Many of the refugees have signified their intention of returning to Socorro next week if there are no more violent manifestations by that time. A careful search of the lava fields to the southeast of the city has failed to reveal any new hot springs or evidences of volcanic action. The property damage at Socorro will not exceed $5,000. In surrounding towns the property damage is also slight, owing to the cheap character of the buildings affected and the absence of costly structures. The shocks undoubtedly are caused by recent heavy rains.

A late dispatch says several slight tremblers occurred at Socorro last night. No serious damage was done. The panic among the inhabitants is subsiding as it is believed the worst of the earthquakes has passed.

Mountain Slides.

Topeka, Kas., July 19.—Reports received at the office of the general manager of the Atchisn, Topeka and Santa Fe road indicate that some delay to traffic has been experienced by the railroad company on account of the New Mexico earthquake. Boulders shaken down from the mountain sides have covered the railroad tracks in places and fully fifty carloads of lava covers the tracks at San Marcial. Workmen are clearing away the debris.

VICTORIES CLAIMED BY BOTH ARMIES

Guatemalans Claim That They Destroyed Salvadoreans, and Latter Assert That They Completely Defeated and Routed Former.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 19.—Commander Mulligan, of the Marblehead, has advised the Navy Department that the vessel arrived at San Jose Guatemala today with the peace commissioners on board and has sailed beyond the three mile limt to enable the commissioners to conduct their negotiations.

Mr. Combs, the American Minister to Guatemala, has returned to Guatemala City and from this time on will be able to look after American interests at the peace conference between Guatemala and Salvador. The State Department received a dispatch today from Mr. Brown, the American charge' at Guatemala City, announcing the return of his superior, who was on his way to the United States when hostilities broke out between Salvador and Guatemala.

Dispatches received at the State Department from American representatives in the two Central American republics also indicate that the armistice is being respected and preliminary negotiations for the conference are progressing satisfactorily.

Salvadoreans Destroyed.

Guatemala City, July 19.—The following official account of the fighting at Platanar and Metapam, July 17, was communicated to the Associated Press today:

"The last two battles fought before 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, July 18, when the armistice began, were won by the Guatemalans who defeated the Salvadoreans in Metapam, completely destroying them. If a few remained in the fortificatiosn at Platanar it was because the armistice, which found them, there was respected. Reports contradicting these facts are false."

Guatemalans Not In It.

San Salvador, July 19.—The final fighting Tuesday resulted in the forces of Salvador occupying El Poste Gigante, Clonar, Coyotillo and Las Margaritas, all positons in Guatemalan territory. The Guatemalan army was completely defeated, retreating in disorder and leaving arms and ammunition in its camps.
